

Mark Huitson [REDACTED]

RE: Discovery of Christian Artefacts of National Importance

Macleod, Calum [REDACTED]
To: Mark Huitson [REDACTED]

Mon, Mar 24, 2025 at 6:03 PM

Dear Mr Huitson,

Many thanks for passing on your very interesting letter and I am sorry to hear about the difficulties you have faced and your wife's health issues – I hope she has recovered.

I will forward this on to a colleague who is a specialist in church artefacts, though I suspect there is not much we can do, especially as we already sold the building prior to yourselves taking possession.

Perhaps it might be worth contacting the Scottish Churches Trust, <https://www.scotlandschurchestrust.org.uk/>

They might also be able to offer some advice and support.

Best wishes,

Calum Macleod,

Church of Scotland communications team

From: Mark Huitson <[REDACTED]>
Sent: 24 March 2025 14:30
To: Media Relations <MEDIARELATIONS@churchofscotland.org.uk>
Subject: Discovery of Christian Artefacts of National Importance

Hello,

My wife and I have a significant case that is out of the ordinary, and relates to the Church of Scotland. We are unsure who is best to consider it, so we would be grateful if you interrogate our petition and forward on to the appropriate department.

Regards

Mark Huitson

tel. 07538 749169

The Church of Scotland - Scottish Charity Number SC011353 This email transmission is privileged, confidential and intended solely for the person or organisation to whom it is addressed. If you are not the intended recipient, you must delete the message immediately without processing it further and you are asked to notify us of the error by email to the sender. All messages passing through this gateway are checked for viruses but you are strongly recommended to check for viruses using your own virus scanner as the Church of Scotland will not take responsibility for any damage caused as a result of virus infection.